

The best place to be at Christmas is in a school! This week has been a whirlwind of festive treats and joyful experiences for our children. From exciting trips and magical theatre visits to our delicious Christmas dinner and the fun of the Christmas fayre, the spirit of the season has truly filled St Chad's!

We are so proud of the enthusiasm and energy shown by our pupils and staff alike, and we can't wait to share our wonderful performances with you next week.

Warm Wishes
Nicola Locker and the St Chad's
Team

Christmas Service

Our Christmas Carol service was beautiful and a highlight of the festive season. The Year 5 and Year 6 children read with such confidence. It is always a very special occasion to share with our community.

Christmas Fayre

What an amazing afternoon, we had at our Victorian-themed Christmas Fayre! Everyone got into the festive spirit and had such good fun taking part in the Fiver Challenge- the effort from all the children was fantastic! The money we have raised will go towards classroom resources.

Christmas Dinner and Christmas Jumper Day

Today was a very tasty success! A huge thank you to Mrs Mottram and Renatta for preparing such a delicious Christmas meal – it was enjoyed by everyone and really brought the festive spirit to life. What a wonderful way to celebrate together!

Blist Hill

Dosbarth 3 and 4 had a great day at Blist Hill Victorian village. The children took part in a Victorian lesson- with a very strict teacher! They also had the opportunity to explore the village and talk to different shop keepers. They loved it!

Theatre Severn- Dosbarth 1 and 2 enjoyed watching Tales of Acorn wood.
